“ So sad. I was his childhood best friend which is an honor to know. What a ball player! Wisdom and stillness beyond his years.... I lived in the house 2 doors down west of his childhood home in North Royalton... I love Danny! Jeanne and Sharon, I was so shocked and saddened. The sleep overs, the baseball, the swimming pool, smoking cigs in the chicken coop behind his house.....lol..... I had a true admiration and love for him even as a kid. He was wonderful! No suprise seeing all the remarks and photos here. God rest Danny and thank you for your service. I have lived in Va since 1990 but did cross paths at a softball field in 1987..... totally apprapoe....lol.....great person and man.

“ Mrs. Grimes & Family- My deepest condolences for your lose. I was absolutely heartbroken for all of you when I read the news. I know that his presence will be sorely missed in your lives. Take comfort in knowing how much he loved you and how much he was loved by others.

What a man he was! A quick peak a his family tells you all you need to know about him- A close knit family filled with love and laughter. I remember always feeling welcome in his home and being treated like "one of the kids". I remember seeing him dote on Jeanne and thinking to myself I hope to one day find love like that.

He will truly be missed.

“ Danny was an outstanding husband, father, son-in-law and nephew-in-law. Woody and I will miss him stopping by for a cup of coffee and a chat for about an hour or two. He was always so friendly.

“ Jeanne & Family, I am so very sorry to hear of Danny's passing My thoughts and prayers are with all of you at this difficult time. I know how much you are hurting. Hold tight to your wonderful memories; they will bring you comfort in the coming days. Danny was a great guy and I always enjoyed talking with him at the various parties, weddings, and when I would run into him at Regos. I especially remember how much Ken enjoyed playing on the "Old Man's Baseball" league with Danny, Kevin & Al. I will never forget the time Deb & I had to race Danny to the ER (hand in bucket of ice) after breaking his wrist during one of those games. It had to hurt like hell, but Danny handled it like a champ! I can see it now, Danny & Ken together again, hitting those home runs in Heaven. God Bless you and your family. Love Vicki Glueck

“ Danny was a friend of my brother Al's who was dating my sister. Then he became my brother in law, and ultimately evolved into being a real brother. We were that close, But I hardly was the only one who had such a relationship with him.

Generous, extremely hard-working, passionate about many things, that was Danny. He could fix anything mechanical, and his skills in home renovation and maintenance kept three family homes in good shape. And as an athlete? I never met a better overall softball player, and he had some truly fine games as the quarterback in annual family Thanksgiving football games.

His best skills were as a father, husband and vital member of a large family. Danny's birthday was THE birthday party of the year, a costume event centered on a theme. It wasn't just a fun party, but a demonstration of the love and respect so many people had for him.

Danny earned all that. I never knew a better person. We all were lucky to have been part of his life.

“ Mr. Grimes was one of my favorite dads around! He always looked at me with a smile and chatted at all the shows we went to. He had the kindest heart and opened himself up to his children's friends. He was supportive and unconditional. My love goes out to his family!

“ Danny was the rock of our family, he always was trying to keep everyone together and willing to help in any way he could. He was an awesome father to his children I don't know any father that was that in tune with what his children were doing or hobbies they were into. I am proud to call him my brother, and will forever remember him and he will be missed by many. Love you Danny.

“ Danny was always up for an adventure. He played along with all of our crazy ideas whether it was an odd dress up party or to partake in Cleveland's Dyngus Day Parade. The story goes... one day Danny showed up at a Thompson party back in the day and then all of a sudden he was family. Gromps forever and ever! Love you and miss you like crazy.

“ Too many memories to share... playing ball in the yard, when he pulled up to my cyo baseball game blasting “the stroke”. I remember being young dressed up as Bernie Kosar as expletives were hurled at the television during the browns playoff runs. I remember always feeling supported and loved no matter what terrible name I gave my band at the time. Father had become friend over the years... something I hope will happen in time with my son. He never missed a show of mine or my amazing brother Ryan. He was the best kind of cranky and the most social loner I’ve met yet... I realize now how many of his qualities I find in myself. This happens to most people over the years only I was lucky enough to absorb the qualities of someone I truly loved, respected, and admired. Forever in my heart. Forever on my mind. Your legacy lives in us now.

“ He was our hero, for certain. I know he was so proud of you kids and cherished the time with you.

Jeanne Grimes - March 04, 2021 at 12:51 PM

“ He was so proud of his kids. He loved their love of music. With parents like yours you HAD to love music!He was so happy and content with the life he created. A great husband and father was what he wanted to be when he grew up. He sure reached that goal to infinity and beyooond!

“ Danny Grimes was my heart and soul. We met when I was 17 and it was love at first sight. He never realized how many lives he touched and how loved he is. Danny helped anyone who needed him. He had so much knowledge. He was never hesitant to tackle a problem. He was a romantic at heart, often bringing me flowers or caring for me in some way. Danny was a devoted family man, a superb husband, father and grandfather. He had a silly sense of humor which often brought us to tears with laughter. He was strong and a softee at the same time. He was the love of my life and I will miss him with every breath I take.

Jeanne Grimes - March 03, 2021 at 08:18 PM

“ HOLE IN HEART

My world is falling apart.
I thought I would be next.
I am lost in a darkness.
No one could expect.

You were to many a hero.
A man well loved by all.
Music and laughter
Memories big and small

Many will remember.
The good man you were.
How you changed our lives
And of your love we were sure

Just one thing, I think.
Even with a jump start
Time will not fill in
The hole in my heart.
