“ My heart is broken. Graham you are and always will be such a shining light. You're suffering is no more and it hurts to think about life here without you. You taught me so much and I will forever hold a special place in my heart just for you. Until we meet again ... love and prayers for The Tucker family and friends. Heaven gained a beautiful angel to watch over us.

“ I cant believe I'm writing this right now. Graham, you were such an amazing human being. Your energy, your words of wisdom, your care for others. I always wished that the energy you used on others, you would use on yourself more. I never would've expected this to happen. You were my best friend and we grew so close to each other in the past year. I'm so happy that I was able to experience life with you and to know that you are now in a better place. You arent struggling anymore. I will continue to think of you day by day, forever and I promise I wont let you down. I will achieve all the dreams that you gave me hope towards. I wish I could've seen you one last time.. but I will see you again someday. I love you, Graham I will continue to send prayers and condolences to your family who I know love and care about you so much. - Ashten

“ I was lucky enough to have been your teacher in elementary school Graham. You and your family have always and will always have a special place in my heart. Gone too soon and too young, your memory will always make me smile. Hugs and prayers to all close to you.

“ Graham, my brotha you are sorely missed already! We struggled together, shared many laughs and I learned so much about you through the days we had. When I heard I couldn't believe it and it's still hard to believe especially since I had just spoken to you the day prior to this tragedy. I'm gonna miss you brotha all the good go way before their time and you were gone far too soon my friend. Condolences to your family and fellow friends and may they grieve in peace. Love you brotha. Rest easy!
