“ Margie and I were friends and family for 50 years. Our husbands at that time were brothers. We both divorced but remained friends. I still remember what she looked like the first time I saw her. She was very quiet. I believe she was only 16 years old. She was always there for me. I couldn't have asked for a better friend. We were talking of taking a trip to Ellis Island, New York. I asked her if she would go and she said sure.

Margie lived through thick and thin but always kept upbeat. She was a hard worker too.

You couldn't ask for a nicer person.

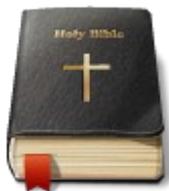

I will completely miss her. I will love her always. I can't believe she is gone and I will see her again in heaven. God bless you and keep you, my friend. Prayers are with you!

“ The Mother I never had...I called her Mom. Love is the 1st thought when I think of her. I rember attending church services with her, Tom, & Kids on several occasions and introducing her to our pastors wife at the Christmas Play 2019 and saying the prayer of salvation. She healed my heart with her love and grace, my confidant my best friend next to Jesus. She told me to "send the message to her family and friend etc.....about the Love and Grace of Our Lord" She was to meet my granddaughter Izabella the day she passed from this life to the next. Nothing can stop that reunion in heaven one day. I remember lessons on making ceramics, Isaac cleaning out the gutters for Grandpa Harris, talking to her for hours on end forgetting about the time, she was like as if I have known her my whole life and could talk to her about anything. Loved going out to dine with her and the Family. Helping with the horses named Noel and Serenity and the hay. Oh and loosing my car key where her and Randy had to drive out to get us, taking the kids to their house to pick up the sticks from all the huge many Hickory trees and Tom cutting the grass. I remember trying to make her recipes from FB. Most of all Mom Harris was there night amd day made available to support my older son Tom when he fell off a cliff braking his back.....she was one of the few people that loved him and cared about him unconditionally. I am a better person today because of her....in a way the Mother I never had. I love you Mom. There are many tears falling around here. God keeps records too. Your Daugbter IN LAW Julie Ann Carver, Grandson Isaac Granddaughter Isavel Son Tom Sr. Thomas Jr. and Izabella your great granddaughter. KJV Ephesians 1 2-23. I rememer her telling me around the time she passed to send the message of the Lord and Truth. Read Ephesians chapter 1. Vs 2-23. Kling James. Version. These are my memory of Mom Margie Harris. (The picture of Mom Harris in this obituary was taken at Grace Cathedral in the Falls Ohio at the Christmas Play by one of the musicians and singers where my son Isaac stared as the step father of baby Jesus) This year year he was asked to play the part of Jesus. “ Spending countless hours with her and my sister cooking Thanksgiving and Christmas dinners. Talking and laughing and learning with her!! Being her taste tester of the raw stuffing before it went in the bird and her yelling at me to quit eating it . Making such a mess, soo many dishes!, but we didn't care because we knew the food would be worth it!!

“ Margie was the first person to greet me when I started at Curtiss-Wright. She was always willing to help if you needed something and was a great listener. No matter what it was, she would always lend an ear and offer words of wisdom. And, let's not forget how she loved to share pictures of her grand babies and great-grand babies. You will be dearly missed, Margie.
